THE WALK-THROUGH

By Sentinel Media Services

Remodeled 4 bedroom in Noe Valley

Twice a week, The Chronicle features a home on the market that caught our eye for its architecture, history or character. More photos: www.sfgate.com/columns/walkthrough

Address: 119 Valley St., San Francisco.

Asking price: $3.95 million.

Description: Contemporary designs with a hint of Wine Country elegance outfit this remodeled four-bedroom home in Noe Valley. Corbels accent the facade of the early 20th century Victorian, and the interior features modern takes on classic finishes like ceiling medallions and pocket doors. Parlors on opposite sides of the entry house a living room and library, and at the rear of the main level is a great room opening to a south-facing Ipe deck through collapsible NanaWalls. A media lounge with wet bar occupies a lower level that includes a bedroom suite that could act as an au-pair. Mature olive trees sprout from a low-maintenance backyard with a fire pit and privacy fences. Visit www.ReimaginedNoeVictorian.com to learn more.

Don't miss: The newly built third-floor master suite with a private, south-facing balcony and a spa bathroom finished in Carrara marble and California Faucet fixtures.

Built: 1900 (Remodeled 2015)

Square feet: 3,439
